

Does your business depend upon great fishing?

Get Involved – Make a Difference

For many years I've wondered how I could encourage more outfitters and guides to become active members of Trout Unlimited. Indeed there are some dedicated TU members within the guide/outfitter community across the country, but for a long time I've felt we could, and should be much more engaged as a group. I am challenging you to help me create a movement, to inject new and passionate energy into the grassroots volunteer effort. I also want you to know that I'm asking for your help purely as a volunteer. This idea is coming from a guide trying to make a change and inspire others.

Fly fishing outfitters, guides and associated businesses care about and depend upon our nation's coldwater lakes, rivers and streams like none other. I encourage and challenge each of you to help me build the OGB program at TU. Please give me a call if you have any questions or ideas.
